ALL POST OFFICES WITH RURAL DELIVERY SERVICE

Rural Carrier Guarantee Period

Postal managers must manage effectively rural carriers who work under the provisions of the Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA) section 7(b)(2). Those carriers are paid overtime for all hours actually worked in excess of 2,080, up to 2,240, within the 52 consecutive week guarantee period.

If a carrier works more than 2,240 hours within the guarantee period, the agreement under FLSA 7(b)(2) is considered void, and the carrier must be compensated for all hours worked during the guarantee period in accordance with FLSA section 7(a).

This year's guarantee period is from Saturday, October 30, 1993, through Friday, October 28, 1994. The guarantee period for next year runs from Saturday, October 29, 1994, through Friday, October 27, 1995.

Emergency Access to Postal Facilities Through Lookout Galleries

Effective immediately, when imminent life-threatening situations occur at postal facilities with lookout galleries (LOG), authorization is granted to facility management to allow emergency response personnel covert and tactical access to the facility through the LOG. Facility management should inform police, fire, and medical personnel responding to such situations of the existence of the LOG and the location of all access points to the LOG. The public safety personnel should be allowed to forcibly enter the LOG if necessary.

CORRECTION

Name and Telephone Number Changes for Customer Support, Information Systems

The article Name and Telephone Number Changes for Customer Support, Information Systems, in Postal Bulletin 21877, 9-29-94, included an erroneous telephone number in the next to the last paragraph. The paragraph should read:

Anyone who is calling from a rotary telephone may still use 1-800-USPSHELP (1-800-877-7435) and speak the option number for the desired support group, and the system will route their call.

FINANCE

National Workhour Reporting System (NWRS) Changes

The following labor distribution code (LDC) change is identified for the National Workhour Reporting System (NWRS) and is effective immediately.

Change	LDC	Definition/Description
New	67	LWOP-IOD-OWCP Leave without pay—injured on duty (LWOP-IOD) hours for all current employees on approved extended leave for a job-related injury or illness when loss wage benefits are paid by the Office of Workers' Compensation (OWCP). Do not charge regular workhours to LDC 67. Transfer regular workhours to an appropriate LDC.

Management Operating Data Systems (MODS)

Workhours will not accumulate in MODS operation numbers. Do not record workhours in LDC 67. LDC 67 workhours are invalid and must be adjusted in the Loan, Transfer, and Training System (LTATS). Workhours transfers will be permitted out of LDC 67.

Reporting Office Group (ROG) Code Identifier

LDC 67 is valid for all ROG Codes.

Designation Activity (D/A) Codes

LDC 67 is valid for all D/As.

Automatic Change to Employees LDC

Automatic changes will not be made from an employee's base LDC to LDC 67. The Injury Compensation Office through Personnel Services must initiate a change to an employee's Form 50, Notification of Personnel Action, to change the employee's base LDC to and from LDC 67.—Finance, 10-13-94

DOMESTIC MAIL

DMM REVISION

Nonprofit and Classroom Rate Second-Class Publications

Effective immediately, Domestic Mail Manual (DMM) E270 is amended as shown below to include standards clearly defining the rate applicable to the advertising portion of second-class publications authorized to claim nonprofit or classroom rates. This revision is based on congressional legislation implemented last year that broadly affected nonprofit second- and third-class mail. Postal Bulletin 21854 (11-11-93) published other related revisions to DMM standards.

This revision does not alter the conditions of eligibility, applicable rates, or preparation standards for nonprofit or classroom rate second-class mail. The current standards in DMM E270 allow the publisher to use existing practices to compute postage accurately but do not explicitly reflect the principle of the legislation that defined what rates apply. The rates currently shown in DMM R200.3.0 and 4.0 are correct and already consider the consequence of the new standards. The revised text will appear in DMM Issue 48.

2.3 Advertising/Nonadvertising

Publications with an advertising percentage of 10% or less are considered 100% nonadvertising for rate purposes. Those publications may use "0" as the "advertising percentage" when computing the nonadvertising adjustment to be applied to the outside-county piece-rate charges. Publications with an advertising percentage exceeding 10% are subject to regular outside-county piece rates for the entire advertising portion of the publication. (The rates in R200 reflect this standard.)

5.4 Advertising/Nonadvertising

Publications with an advertising percentage of 10% or less are considered 100% nonadvertising for rate purposes. Military Mail Not Eligible for Destination SCF Discounts

As indicated in the labeling list in Domestic Mail Manual (DMM) L002, only pieces for ZIP Code areas marked by three bullets in column A, or listed in column B, and which show the SCF service areas in column C may be claimed at SCF rates. Military APO/FPO ZIP Code prefixes 090-098, 340, and 962-966 are not assigned to the service area of any SCF, are not listed in column C of L002, and therefore are not eligible for second-class SCF zone rates or third-class destination SCF discounts.

Customers should review the ZIP Code tables in their computer software to ensure that they are not inadvertently claiming the destination SCF discount for these APO/FPO ZIP Code areas.

However, these same APO/FPO ZIP Code areas are included in bulk mail center (BMC) service areas as shown in DMM L708. Therefore, pieces destined for these military ZIP Code areas may qualify for the destination BMC rates when the other applicable eligibility criteria for destination BMC rates are met.

MISCELLANEOUS

ALL IRT, WRU, CTT OFFICES

Setting Clocks for Standard Time

Correct system time in integrated retail terminals (IRTS) and weighing and rating units (WRUs) is critical because their internal clocks are used to verify Express Mail acceptance times, service commitments, and network status. The IRT system time is also printed on customer receipts and employee reports. Computerized Tracking and Tracing (CTT) scanner clocks are used to record Express Mail arrival times.

Managers must ensure that the clocks in all IRTs, WRUs, and CTT scanners under their control are set backward 1 hour before opening for business on Monday, October 31, to reflect the change to standard time in most locations. Facilities with Saturday night operations should reset the time as soon as possible after the 2 a.m. Sunday start time.

Select menu item 11, Set System Date and Time, from the Control Menu on the UNISYS Phase III Supervisor Disk. Select item 10, Set System Date and Time on the UNISYS Phase II Supervisor Disk Control Menu. Select menu item 5, Change Fees and Tables, from the Main Menu on the MOS IRTs Control Disk, then select item 5, Set Unit Date and Time, from the change Fees and Tables Menu.

3. Press the enter key. The scanner then prompts the user to enter the time. Enter correct standard time in military format (examples: 8 AM=0800, 1:30 PM=1330).
4. Press the enter key. The scanner returns to the first screen.
5. Press the CTRL key and the T key to verify the time and date.

6. Press the enter key if correct; if not, reenter correct information.

Environmental Awareness

Postmasters and postal supervisors and managers should review and discuss the following article with their employees.

Environmental protection affects each of us on and off the job. Every day in the news we read, hear, or see some environmental stories, and like most of the news, it's often bad—everything from air pollution, smog, and global warming; to water pollution, landfills overflowing with trash and paper; to spills of fuels and hazardous chemicals, the list goes on.

Clearly, our growing population and our modern high-tech lifestyles exact a high toll on the natural environmental and, ultimately, on our collective health.

Delivering the mail also has an impact on the environment, with over 700,000 employees working in more than 36,000 facilities, and using over 200,000 motor vehicles to get our jobs done. Potential sources of environmental pollution exist in many of our operations. For example:

- Emissions from postal vehicles and facilities.
- Postal Service vehicles fueling operations may have spills, and our underground storage tanks may leak, which could contaminate ground or surface waters. Additionally, gasoline vapors can contribute to air pollution.
- Mail processing distribution plants and centers operate equipment that needs paint, solvents, and other chemicals.
- Most postal facilities use various chemicals for cleaning and large quantities of paper for various operational reasons.

These common activities generate waste and impact our environment.

Thousands of rules and regulations attempt to protect the environment and control contamination. Compliance with applicable federal, state, and local environmental laws and regulations is mandatory. If we do not, we could be fined. Everyone must assist in achieving and sustaining compliance. Until relatively recently, federal facilities were exempt from many penalties, laws, and regulations that demanded compliance with environmental legislation. Since then, however, it has become mandatory that the Postal Service take a more active role in compliance with environmental laws including recycling plans, reporting requirements, and other pollution prevention measures.

There are also opportunities for us to do good things as far as environmental protection is concerned while making money by recycling or avoiding disposal costs. Also, the Postal Service's environmental vision includes compliance with environmental rules and regulations and promotes leadership in taking proactive initiatives. Our environmental efforts include:

- developing trip reduction plans;
- eliminating the use of certain hazardous chemicals to reduce the overall cost for purchase and disposal;
- establishing recycling programs for paper and other commodities not only to reduce disposal costs but to increase revenue;
- making Express Mail and Priority Mail packages from recycled materials;
- establishing the nation's largest compressed natural gas delivery fleet with more than 2,000 vehicles fueled by natural gas and plans to convert another 2,000 vehicles in 1995—we continue to test other alternate fueled vehicles as well;
- creating partnerships with companies such as Xerox Corporation for the return of copier toner cartridges and with McDonalds for new environmental stamps designed by children.

In our homes and communities, we also impact the environment by waste, trash, household chemicals, and vehicles. By properly disposing of or eliminating as much as we can of the hazardous chemicals we use for household purposes (paints, solvents, pesticides, automotive chemicals, etc.), we contribute to environmental protection and reduced health risks. By purchasing environmentally preferable products, we can minimize our impact on the environment. We can also participate in community recycling programs for newspapers, aluminum cans, glass, plastic bottles, etc.

The bottom line is to reduce pollution, save energy, use less virgin materials, and save money. As a citizen, postal employee, postmaster, or postal manager, our main concern is for the safety and health of all customers and employees. We should work toward protecting the environment at the workplace as well as within our community.

Postmasters and managers are the natural leaders to communicate with the public and employees on Postal Service environmental initiatives. The Employee Opinion Survey included questions on the environment that will assist us in focusing our environmental initiatives.

Environmental awareness—to inform and educate ourselves and the public is important to us.

Pictorial Cancellations Announcement 94-19

As a community service, the Postal Service offers pictorial cancellations to commemorate local events celebrated in communities throughout the nation. A list of upcoming events for which pictorial cancellations are authorized appears below. If available, the sponsor of the pictorial cancellation appears in italics under the date. Also provided, as space permits, are illustrations of those cancellations that were reproducible and available at press time.

People attending these local events may obtain the cancellation in person at the temporary post office station established there. Those who cannot attend the event, but who wish to obtain the cancellation, may submit a mail order request. Pictorial cancellations are available only for the dates indicated, and requests must be postmarked no later than 30 days following the requested pictorial cancellation date.

All requests must include a stamped envelope or postcard bearing at least the minimum First-Class Mail postage (29 cents per envelope or 19 cents per postcard). Items submitted for cancellation may not include postage issued after the date of the requested cancellation. Such items will be returned unserved.

Customers wishing to obtain a cancellation should affix stamps to any envelope or postcard of choice, address the envelope or postcard to one's self or others, insert a card of postcard thickness in envelopes for sturdiness, and tuck in the flap. Place the envelope or postcard in a larger envelope and address it to: PICTORIAL CANCELLATIONS, followed by the NAME OF THE STATION, ADDRESS, CITY, STATE, ZIP+4 CODE, exactly as listed below (using all capitals and no punctuation, except the hyphen in the ZIP + 4 code).

After applying the pictorial cancellation, the Postal Service returns the envelope or postcard through the mail. Customers who want their serviced item returned under protected cover should include a larger, stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Legends of the West Commemorative Stamps

Copyright USPS 1993

The Postal Service ventures westward with the issuance of a $5.80 sheet of twenty 29-cent Legends of the West commemorative stamps on October 18 on the University of Wyoming campus in Laramie, Wyoming; out on the streets of Old Tucson in Tucson, Arizona; and at Fort Sill in Lawton, Oklahoma.

The Legends of the West stamps, designed by Mark Hess of Katonah, New York, feature Buffalo Bill, Jim Bridger, Annie Oakley, Chief Joseph, Bill Pickett, Bat Masterson, John Fremont, Wyatt Earp, Nellie Cashman, Charles Goodnight, Geronimo, Kit Carson, Wild Bill Hickok, Jim Beckwourth, Bill Tilghman, and Sacagawea. Four additional stamps honor Native American Culture, Western Life, the Overland Mail, and the American Cowboy. These stamps are the first in a new "Classic Collection" series featuring Americana-themed subjects. There will be one or two additions to the Classic Collection series annually, each in the same unique 20-stamp format with a banner on the selvage portion of the sheet and descriptive text on the back of each stamp. The text is printed before the glue is applied—both the ink and glue are approved food-grade materials and completely safe for use.

In addition to the stamps, the following products are available:

STAMP ANNOUNCEMENT 94-38

Bureau of Engraving and Printing Souvenir Sheet

Copyright USPS 1993

The Postal Service marks the centennial of postage stamp production by the Bureau of Engraving and Printing with the issuance of an $8.00 souvenir sheet on November 3, in New York, New York. Designed by Peter Cocci of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing, the sheet features four 1894 $2 Madison stamps.

The original engraved die from the 1894 $2 Madison stamp was used to produce the souvenir sheet. To differentiate between the original 1894 stamp and the 1994 re-issue (and because the size of current definitive stamps is slightly different from those produced in 1894), the image of the 1994 stamp was trimmed and the outer engraving lines were removed or modified. Additionally, the new stamps will be coated with phosphor tagging and will have a different gauge of perfs.
