ISSUED FROM THE OFFICE OF THE POSTMASTER GENERAL.

ORDERS OF THE POSTMASTER GENERAL.

Discharge Of Certain Members Of The National Guard.

OFFICE OF THE POSTMASTER GENERAL,
WASHINGTON, April 20, 1917.

To Postmasters and Postal Employees:

Under date of April 3, 1917, the Secretary of War issued the following instructions with reference to the discharge of certain members of the National Guard in the Federal Service:

The Secretary of War authorizes the discharge from service of members of the National Guard who are officers or employees of Government Departments, the loss of whose services would seriously hamper the bureaus of those departments; of Government contractors, and of such employees of Government contractors, such as superintendents, foremen, inspectors, or in other special skilled capacities, on contracts for the United States, loss of whose services would seriously hamper contractors in the fulfillment of contracts with the War and Navy Departments for characteristically or distinctively war material.

Such Government employees will be discharged by division or department commanders upon receipt by them of proper certification by the heads of departments or independent bureaus, and in the cases of Government contractors, or above-mentioned employees of Government contractors, upon receipt by them of the proper certificate of an officer of such contracting firm whose responsibility has been certified to by the chief of the supply bureaus of the War and Navy Departments under whom contracts are being filled.

A. S. BURLERSON,
Postmaster General.
