NEW 13-CENT AND 17-CENT SPECIAL DELIVERY STAMPS

Postmasters and employees of the Postal Service are advised of the issuance of two special-delivery stamps, in 13-cent and 17-cent denominations, to meet the increased special delivery fees which will become effective November 1, 1944.

The 13-cent and 17-cent special-delivery stamps will be identical in size, arrangement, and design with the current 10-cent and 15-cent special-delivery stamps, the only alterations being the change in the denomination numerals. The 13-cent stamp will be printed in blue, and the 17-cent in orange, in sheets of 50. These stamps will be first placed on sale at the Washington, D. C., post office on October 30, 1944.

Stamp collectors desiring first-day cancellations of the 13-cent and 17-cent special-delivery stamps on October 30, may send envelopes, properly addressed and having regular postage affixed, to the Postmaster, Washington 13, D. C., with cash or money-order remittance to cover cost of the new special-delivery stamps to be added. As the service in the Washington post office will be limited to the affixing of the new special-delivery stamps, all covers submitted must have postage at the first-class rate already affixed. Special-delivery stamps themselves are not valid for the prepayment of postage. When addressing envelopes, sufficient space must be allowed for the stamps and postmark. An enclosure of medium weight should be placed in each envelope, and the flap either turned in or sealed. Postage stamps and personal checks will not be accepted in payment for stamps.

Requests for uncanceled stamps must not be included with orders for first-day covers. For collections, quality selections of the new stamps may be obtained on mail orders addressed to the Philatelic Agency, Washington 25, D. C. The Agency does not service first-day covers.

Postmasters at direct- and central-accounting offices will receive an initial stock of these 13-cent and 17-cent special-delivery stamps on orders prepared in the Department. The usual requisitions should be submitted later as additional supplies of these stamps are required. Postmasters at district-accounting offices may obtain immediate supplies of the 13-cent and 17-cent special-delivery stamps by requisition on the central-accounting office.

Postmasters at direct- and central-accounting offices may include unsold 10-cent and 15-cent special-delivery stamps in their next regular shipment of redemption stock to the Department. District-accounting postmasters may return unsold 10-cent and 15-cent special-delivery stamps to the central-accounting office in exchange for other stamp stock.
