A Holiday From Accidents

You will notice this year, during the Labor Day weekend holiday, people driving with their car headlights on low beam during the daytime. This is part of a national "Lights On Campaign" by all persons pledged to drive safely. "Lights On" drivers will in effect tell other drivers that they are alert to danger, have a safety checked vehicle, are obeying the rules of the road, and have had a good night's sleep before taking to the road.

We favor any effort that may contribute to the reduction of traffic accidents and, in particular, the especially tragic holiday accidents. We encourage our personnel to participate in the "Lights On Campaign" both on and off the job. By setting an example perhaps we can contribute to a safer holiday weekend for everyone.

The Postmaster General.

Office Department, Washington 25, D.C., on and after October 4, 1961.

1st- and 2d-class offices will receive this stamp automatically. If additional bulk quantities are required, submit a separate requisition to the Bureau of Engraving and Printing (Item 488) with a memorandum stating that the stamps indicated are required in addition to those automatically furnished. Endorse requisitions (Form 17) to RDPO's at top Additional. All requisitions not so endorsed will be returned.

3d- and 4th-class post offices shall immediately submit requisitions, Form 17, to their RDPO. Do not include stamps other than the Remington on the initial requisition.—Office of the Special Assistant to the Postmaster General, 8-24-61.

Painting Collection and Relay (Storage) Boxes

Numerous collection and relay (storage) boxes in various areas of the country, including boxes in downtown business sections are dirty or rusty and badly in need of cleaning and painting. It is not economical to neglect this equipment and the unsightly or shabby appearance reflects unfavorably on the entire Postal Service.

Carriers should report to immediate supervisors those boxes in need of attention. Postmasters shall take immediate action to see that all street collection and relay (storage) boxes present a neat, attractive appearance, under the authority in section 654.281, Postal Manual.—Bureau of Operations, 8-24-61.

Postmasters and other officials in charge of field operating units that have been selected to report data needed for cost ascertainment purposes have been notified and furnished necessary forms and instructions.

The Cost Ascertainment System is a nationwide development. Many individual post offices and operating units are not familiar with the uses made of the data obtained. This system furnishes information that is extensively used in the rate-making process; in budgetary matters; in administration of the service; in answering inquiries from the Congress and the public; and for special analysis of the revenue, volumes and costs of the subclasses of mails and services.

If some or all of the functions of your installation or service are to be involved in cost ascertainment, I will appreciate your wholehearted cooperation in securing accurate data for these reports.—Office of the Deputy Postmaster General, 8-24-61.

The following summary of revenue and property accounting procedures covering the installation, transfer, and disposal of post office-owned postage meters is for the guidance of postmasters in the interim between distribution of Postal Manual Chapter 4 (436.4 of Issue 480) and revision of related material in Chapters 3 and 6.

b. Revenue: Enter data on Form 3609-PO and report register readings on next Meter Control List with notation "Out for repairs." Continue to report as "out for repairs" until meter is returned. Set up Form 3609-PO for substitute meter and report under Code 8 (Loaned) on all subsequent Meter Control Lists with cross reference to serial number of meter it replaces. Enter register readings on return of the post office owned meter and release of substitute meter on appropriate Forms 3609-PO and on next Meter Control List. In event of replacement of a substitute meter by another substitute, handle as above.

4. Reconciliation

Ascertain that property and revenue control records covering each post office owned meter agree in every detail and notify the regional controller promptly whenever there is a discrepancy between these records or between the records and actual meter.

5. Contract Stations

Post office owned meters are not furnished to contract stations. In the event a contract station operator desires to lease a meter at his own expense from an approved manufacturer (see PM 143.14), designate where it will be set and handle the same as any other patron meter. Report under the appropriate owner code for the manufacturer; do not report revenue under either Code 8 or 9 on quarterly meter control list.—Bureau of Finance, 8-24-61.

Each post office is to receive the following materials from the POD supply center without requisition:

1. Open Season Instructions and Information About the Program, BRI 41-117;

2. Brochures for two Government-wide plans:

a. Service Benefit Plan, BRI 41-25 (and applicable Basic Surgical-Medical Benefits Folder fee schedules—forwarded to post offices by local offices of Blue Cross and Blue Shield);

b. Indemnity Benefit Plan, BRI 41-24;

3. Brochures for the comprehensive plans, if any, that are available in the local area;

4. Brochures for the employee organization plans for which postal employees are eligible; and

5. An additional supply of Standard Forms 2809 and 2810.

These should be received by September 15, 1961.

Responsibility of Postmaster or Installation Head

Each postmaster (or his personnel office) or installation head will:

1. Distribute to each employee the brochures for Open Season Instructions and Information About the Program, Service Benefit Plan (and the fee schedule if provided by the local office of Blue Cross and Blue Shield), Indemnity Benefit Plan, and the brochures for the comprehensive plans, if any, that are available locally. Employee organization brochures are to be provided when requested by employees. Distribution may begin as soon as all of these materials including the brochures for the employee organizations are received in postal installation, starting no earlier than September 15, 1961, and being completed to later than September 30, 1961.

4. Make certain that SF 2809 is properly completed and forwarded to regional controller at earliest opportunity;

5. Complete and forward SF 2810, when necessary; and

6. Be objective and treat all plans equally.

Responsibility of Each Eligible Postal Employee

3. To read brochures for all plans in which interested;

4. To decide whether to enroll if not already enrolled or to change his enrollment:

b. If he wishes to make a change in his enrollment or to enroll, he obtains and completes a SF 2809 and forwards it to the postmaster (or personnel office) as soon as completed but no later than October 16, 1961.

Employees Who Must Make a Change

If an employee is now enrolled in either of these plans—the Pacific Health Plan, Los Angeles, Calif., or the UNAPOC Health Benefits Plan, Washington, D.C.—he must enroll in another plan during the open season to have continued health benefits protection. If he is enrolled in the low option of the plan offered by the Physicians and Surgeons Association, Los Angeles, Calif., he must change his enrollment to have continued

Keynote for Federal Employee-Management Cooperation

The Superintendent of Documents will soon distribute to all postal installations a Keynote for Federal Employee - Management Cooperation poster.

This poster is one of a series of employee-directed messages designed to (1) help develop among Federal employees a sense of pride in membership in the Government's work force, (2) keep employees informed on matters of interest, and (3) contribute to improved morale in the career service.

Because Federal employees and all those who share responsibilities for personnel management have a high interest in this subject, it is desirable to call their attention to the Presidential statement on employee-management relations in the Federal service. Display the poster on bulletin boards in all offices and installations where it will be seen by all employees and patrons. It should be displayed in a manner that will not mar the walls or woodwork.

Postmasters in buildings operated by the General Services Administration should provide posters for lobby display to the building superintendent.—Bureau of Personnel, 8-15-61.
