Form 1230, Timecard

Employees who perform service as postmaster replacement and/or postmaster relief are requested to exercise care when completing Form 1230, Timecard. Many of these forms have been received by the Postal Data Centers completed incorrectly. The following procedure should be used.

The letters "PMS" are to be used in the daily clock-ring spaces when postmaster replacement service is performed; however, if postmaster relief service is performed, the clock-ring spaces must be filled in to show the actual number of hours worked. See exhibit below and Fiscal Handbook, Series F-21, Timekeepers Instructions, section 462.

The image shows a Form 1230 Timecard for an employee named WATSON. The card is filled with handwritten entries, including "PMS" in the clock-ring spaces and "EL" in the initial columns. It shows a weekly schedule with various work and leave periods. The card includes sections for "PAID LEAVE", "NIGHT WORK", "WORK HOURS", and "TOTALS BY". The employee's name "WATSON" is written vertically in the center. The card is dated "10-15-70" and has a "START" time of "12:00".

*All Postal InstallationsPOLITICAL MAILINGS

Between now and the General Election on November 3, 1970, the postal service will be called upon to accept and deliver numerous mailings of a political nature, a great number of them in substantial quantities. These mailings will be made by individual candidates, as well as local, State, and national campaign organizations.

In addition to numerous local offices and issues to be voted upon on November 3, American electorate will also cast their ballots for 34 Senators, 435 Representatives, and 35 State Governors. All political mailings must be processed promptly and delivered with equal care and attention.

Regional Directors and postmasters should make themselves aware of potential mailing activities in their areas, arrange simultaneous meetings with candidates and committees to discuss general mailing plans and make available to them proper postal procedures, especially for third-class bulk mailings. Past experience has demonstrated clearly that, if all mailers of political material are informed fully of postal requirements and assured equal and proper handling of their mailings to bring about delivery of campaign matter in time for the General Election of November 3, there will be no cause for criticism.

When answering inquiries or handling contacts with potential mailers of political campaign material, postmasters, supervisors and employees should stress the absolute necessity for mailers to deposit their mail as far in advance of the General Election on November 3 as possible to insure delivery before the election.

Postmasters should make a record of each contact made with potential mailers of political material and a general summary of the information provided to these mailers.

In addition, each postmaster must keep documented records of any political campaign mailings either deposited at their office or received for delivery which were too late for delivery by November 3, 1970. At a minimum, the documented record should include:

1. Name of mailer.
2. Date and time received for dispatch.
3. Date and time received for delivery.
4. Approximate number of pieces not delivered prior to November 3, 1970, and the reasons why.

Such detailed records will provide the basis for a documented and factual explanation of any complaints received alleging improper handling of this mail.—Bureau of Operations, 10-15-70.

Annual Alien Address Report

The Immigration and Nationality Act of 1952 requires each alien residing in the United States on January 1, 1971, to report his current address to the Commissioner of the Immigration and Naturalization Service within the period January 1 to January 31, 1971.

All post offices throughout the United States, Guam, Puerto Rico, and the Virgin Islands will participate in this program to the extent of distributing the address report cards, Form I-53, to the aliens, and forwarding the completed cards to the nearest Immigration and Naturalization Service offices. A list of these Immigration and Naturalization Service offices will be published in a later POSTAL BULLETIN.

The address report card, Form I-53, for 1971, is a manila punch card similar to the one used for 1970. The Immigration and Naturalization Service will furnish a supply of cards to each postmaster. Postmasters requiring additional cards should direct their requests to the nearest office of the Immigration and Naturalization Service. These cards will be furnished to each postmaster during the month of November but distribution to the public will not begin until the first day of January 1971.

Additional detailed instructions covering the conduct of the program will be published at a later date.—
