Older Americans Month

The month of May, 1976 has been proclaimed as Older Americans Month.

Among our Nation's most precious resources are the collective wisdom, experience and abilities of our older citizens.

As one of the Nation's largest employers, I am pleased to publicly recognize the invaluable contributions being made by the Postal Service's older employees and the fact that older workers are represented in all levels of our work force. I welcome this opportunity to join other Federal agencies in highlighting the contributions these citizens have made in the past and the potential they hold for the future.

I know that each postal manager will ensure equal access to opportunities for all qualified employees, including our older employees.

Sup. 7. Sale

Bicentennial Souvenir Sheets

The release at selected post offices and the Philatelic Sales Division of the four Bicentennial Souvenir Sheets shall be deferred until June 7, 1976.

The four souvenir sheets will be first placed on sale at Philadelphia, PA, on May 29, 1976, as previously announced. Sales will be restricted to that city for the duration of the international stamp show INTERPHIL '76 which closes June 6, 1976.

Distribution of the four souvenir sheets in two separate but equal shipments remain unchanged. The second shipment will be completed by the Bureau of Engraving and Printing on June 12, 1976.—Customer Services Dept., 5-20-76.

13-Cent Benjamin Franklin Commemorative Stamp

Production difficulties have developed at the Bureau of Engraving and Printing which will result in a delay in the delivery to some post offices of the Benjamin Franklin stamps.

In order to have a supply of stamps at nearly all post offices by June 2, 1976, two automatic distributions will be made by the Bureau of Engraving and Printing. The first shipment will be approximately one half the quantity normally furnished. The second shipment will follow immediately and should be completed by June 11, 1976.

Postal Data Centers have been requested to prepare two automatic distribution printouts with related invoices and labels for use by sectional centers in making the initial and subsequent distributions to associate post offices.

Sectional Centers which maintain and local stations and branches should reduce the quantity of stamps furnished initially to insure that all postal outlets have a supply by first day of sale.

This notice should be brought to the attention of all sales personnel.— Customer Services Dept., 5-20-76.

Hazards of Walk-In Vaults

Reference is made to an article in Postal Bulletin 21074, dated April 8, 1976. The article, entitled Hazards of Walk-In Vaults, states that it is possible to accidently lock a person into the walk-in vault, and that if the vault is not equipped with inside door-opening device, or emergency communication system, serious or fatal injury to the person may result.

The article also suggested that when the vault door is opened, a chain should be draped from the door handle on the outside of the vault door around the front edge and hooked on the back of the door. If difficulty is encountered in the above method, the chain may be placed between the back edge of the door and the jamb and draped over one of the hinges.

Chains are available for this purpose from the Eastern and Western Area Supply Centers. The item number to be utilized when ordering this chain is Item 0830-DEF. Be sure to specify on the requisition that the chain is to be used to prevent accidental closure of vault doors. The Item 0830-DEF chain is identical to Item 0830, vestibule door chain, however, 0830-DEF has an inherent weakness and should NOT be used to secure vestibule doors.—Employee Relations Dept., 5-20-76.

Australia—Valuable Articles

Effective immediately, the postal administration of Australia will accept banknotes, currency notes, or any kind of securities payable to bearer, platinum, gold or silver (whether manufactured or unmanufactured); precious stones, jewelry, or precious articles in insured parcel post packages or registered letters and letter packages. Previously these items were admitted only in registered letters or letter packages.

Publication 42, International Mail, will be amended to reflect this change.—Rates and Classification Dept., 5-20-76.

HIDDEN DIVIDENDS

You may think the only dividend your credit union has to offer is a high passbook savings dividend, probably compounded quarterly. NOT SO! It has money to lend (with automatic life insurance to eligible borrowers at no extra charge), payroll deductions, and personal, confidential service in all business transactions. Best of all, it is a select-membership group and you are a part of it. Members like you control the credit union through the board of directors you elect. You tell them what you need, and they listen. So, join your local credit union. If you have none available, write USPS FCU, Box 23650, Washington, DC 20024.

Change-of-Address Kits

During June 1976, Change-of-Address Kits (Notice 8A) will be shipped to all sectional centers. Upon receipt of the kits, sectional centers should make a secondary distribution to their associate offices. Sufficient quantities should be forwarded based upon the number of households serviced by that facility and upon anticipated usage. Window clerks should be advised to give out kits whenever customers request changeof-address materials. - Customer Services Dept., 5-20-76.

Form 1767

It has been brought to the attention of the National Joint Labor-Management Safety and Health Committee that in several offices For 1767, Report of Hazard, Unsafe Condition or Practice, is not available for employee use. A standard size arrow lock cannot be used on collection boxes equipped with the security lock unit. A modified arrow lock, or arrow lock with extension, is required for use with the security lock when installed on collection boxes.

Injury Compensation Program

Procedures for implementation of the Federal Employees' Compensation Act (FECA) as amended were provided in Postal Bulletin 21073, March 25, 1976.

Section II-A states that employees of the USPS who suffer disabling onthe-job traumatic injuries are entitled to continuation of regular pay for the period of disability up to a maximum of 45 calendar days for each injury.

Some installations are not tracking the 45 calendar day period which results in employees being granted excessive workers' compensation (WC)
